

START TO SELECT PRIZE WINNERS IN DOG SHOW AT FAIR

The Copper State Kennel club's dog show at the 1920 state fair, admittedly the best dog show ever held in Arizona, will come to a close this afternoon after three days of complete success. The concluding feature of the show will be the parade of all prize winners, both for the show and for each breed, at 3 o'clock this afternoon in front of the grand stand, each dog being sponsored by a Phoenix society woman.

Final judging of the dogs—and there are some of the best dogs in the country in the show—will take place this morning, the judging in the various classes of breeds being finished yesterday afternoon. People who attend the fair will have their last opportunity of seeing the show this afternoon.

Many particularly fine dogs are entered in this year's dog show, among them some of the finest bluebloods in the southwest. Almost all breeds are represented, from the tall, aristocratic Russian wolfhounds and the huge mastiff and St. Bernard down to the little Brussels Griffon and toy dogs. A number of the dogs in the show are from the famous Anoaia Kennels of Mrs. Anita Baldwin, having been sent here in charge of Chris Shuttleworth, editor of the Kennel Advocate. Both Mr. Shuttleworth and James Ewins of Los Angeles, judge of the show, have joined local experts in declaring the show a very good one.

Results in the judging at the show yesterday were as follows:
Airedales: First in dogs, "Beverly Hills Speedster," owned by N. A. Pabst of Beverly Hills, Calif. Reserves, "White Iris," "Tyrant," of the Anoaia Kennels. Best opposite sex, C. C. Emmert's "Queen Victoria." First in bitches, R. A. Gray's "Gray Eagle's Chloraine."

Bull terriers: First, E. E. Clark's "Earthquake." Special prize, Ben Davis' "Descanso Reina."

Boston terriers: Special prize "Macy's Sweetheart," of the Saborn kennels. Best opposite sex, "Sanborn's Sensation."

Fox terriers, smooth: Special prize, P. F. Peck's "Sakina Racery." Reserve and best opposite sex, P. F. Peck's "Cuyamasca Music Box."

Fox terriers, wire: Special prize for best wire dog, Breckenridge Carroll's "Sidiaw Smasher." Reserve, Milton Mensaca's "Vertex Vandal."

Irish terriers: First, H. M. Robertson's "Sidiaw Shindy." Reserve, Judge A. C. Baker's "Sidiaw Sure Mike."

Bull dogs: First, "Knight Errant of Anoaia." Reserve, R. W. Leonard's "Model Knight." Special prize, "White Knight of Anoaia." Best opposite sex, D. S. Rabb's "Lady Wanager."

Bull dogs, miniature: First, John Matthews' "Betty."

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR ARMISTICE DAY

The memorial to be held by the legion at the state fair Thursday morning will be very simple, although nothing will be lost in the sincerity or solemnity of the service. The program will begin promptly at 11 a. m., and all those who wish to be present are most cordially urged to be in their seats in the grandstand by 11 o'clock.

The grandstand will be thrown open to the public at 10 without charge for admission.

The program follows:

"America".....Led by band, audience singing
Introductory.....Arnold Blumenthal, post commander
"Ideals of the Legion".....Burt Clingan, state commander
Special music.....City band
Address.....Governor Campbell
Memorial:

"In Flanders Fields".....Song by Mr. Lehigh
Placing of flowers and draping of flag in memorial.

Invocation.....Legion chaplain
Taps.....Bugler, high school cadets
Volley.....National guardsmen of honor
The members of the legion will be assisted by the high school cadets, the national guard, mounted, and by the city band. The colors of the 168th infantry and the 540th F. A. will be appropriately guarded by guards of honor from the above organizations. The public is most heartily urged to be present as a tribute to the heroes who "Sleep in Flanders Field."
